SUGA WINS “2018 BEST INVESTMENT VALUE AWARD FOR LISTED COMPANIES”

Suga International Holdings Limited (“SUGA” or “Group”; stock code: 912), a leading electronics total solutions provider who is also in pet food and accessories business, has won the Best Investment Value Award (market capitalisation below HK$10 billion) at “The 6th Best Investment Value Award for Listed Companies” (“BIVA Award”) this year, recognising its outstanding business performance and stable dividend payouts in 2017.

Dr Ng Man Cheuk, Alfred, Executive Director and Chief Technology Officer of SUGA, said, “We are honoured to receive this award, which represents the recognition and support we have from the investment community. By investing resources in marrying IoT technology with its different products in recent years, the Group has gained recognition from customers. And, building on its solid business foundation, we have also sought to diversify its business and entered pet-related businesses showing strong development potential. In the future, we will continue to seize suitable business opportunities to create value for shareholders.”

The 6th BIVA Award (2018) recognised the effort of listed companies to improve business management and achieve asset value appreciation or corporate culture development. Listed companies which stood out in public voting were then reviewed and the ultimate winners selected by the Advisory Committee. The BIVA Award judging panel comprised representatives of different financial institutions and members of the Committee included stock commentators, analysts and investors.
